12. Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs the Trustees must note the fact in the minutes of their next meeting.

Any eligible Trustee may be re-appointed. If the number of Trustees falls below the quorum in Clause [17 i)], none of the powers or discretions conferred by this deed or by law on the Trustees shall be exercisable by the remaining Trustees except the power to appoint new Trustees.

13. Ordinary meetings

The Trustees must hold at least two ordinary meetings each year. One such meeting in each year must involve the physical presence of those Trustees who attend the meeting.

Other meetings may take such form, including videoconferencing, as the Trustees decide provided that the form chosen enables the Trustees both to see and to hear each other.

14. Calling meetings

The Trustees must arrange at each of their meetings the date, time and place of their next meeting, unless such arrangements have already been made.

Ordinary meetings may also be called at any time by the person elected to chair meetings of the Trustees or by any two Trustees.

In that case not less than ten days' clear notice must be given to the other Trustees.

The first meeting of the Trustees must be called by 28th February 2013 or, if no meeting has been called within three months after the date of this deed, by any two of the Trustees.

Not less than four days' clear notice must be given to the other Trustees of the matters to be discussed at the meeting.

16. Chairing of meetings

The Trustees at their first ordinary meeting in each year must elect one of their number to chair their meetings.

The person elected shall always be eligible for re-election. If that person is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding a meeting, or if no one has been elected, or if the person elected has ceased to be a Trustee, the Trustees present must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

The person elected to chair meetings of the Trustees shall have no other additional functions or powers except those conferred by this deed or delegated to him or her by the Trustees.

17. Quorum

- i. Subject to the following provision of this clause, no business shall be conducted at a meeting of the Trustees unless at least one third of the total number of Trustees at the time, or two Trustees (whichever is the greater) are present throughout the meeting.
- ii. The Trustees may make regulations specifying different quorums for meetings dealing with different types of business.

18. Voting

At meetings, decisions must be made by a majority of the Trustees present and voting on the question.

The person chairing the meeting shall have a casting vote whether or not he or she has voted previously on the same question but no Trustee in any other circumstances shall have more than one vote.

19. Conflict of Interest

A charity Trustee must:

- i. Declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared; and
- ii. Absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Any charity Trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

 - b. Who had previously retired or who had been obliged by this deed to vacate office;
 - c. Who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interests or otherwise

If without the vote of the that charity trustee and that charity trustee being counted in the quorum, the decision has been made by a majority of the charity trustees at the quorate meeting.

- ii. Sub –clause i. of this clause does not permit a charity Trustee to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the charity trustees or of a committee of charity Trustees if, but for sub-clause i., the resolution would have been void, or if the charity Trustee has not complied with clause 19 (Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties).

21. Minutes

The Trustees must keep minutes, in books kept for the purpose or by such other means as the Trustees decide, of the proceedings at their meetings.

In the minutes the Trustees must record their decisions and, where appropriate, the reasons for those decisions.

The Trustees must approve the minutes in accordance with the procedures, laid down in regulations made under clause 22 of this deed.

 - b. methods of making decisions in order to deal with cases or urgency when a meeting is impractical;
 - c. the deposit of money at a bank;
 - d. the custody of documents; and
 - e. the keeping and authenticating of records. (If regulations made under this clause permit records of the Charity to be kept in electronic form and requires a Trustee to sign the record, the regulations must specify a method of recording the signature that enables it to be properly authenticated.)

- ii. The Trustees must not make regulations which are inconsistent with anything in this deed.

23. Disputes

If a dispute arises between the trustees about the validity or propriety of anything done by charity trustees under this deed, and the dispute cannot be resolved by agreement, the trustees party to the dispute must first try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation before resorting to litigation.

24. Accounts, Annual Report and Annual Return

The Trustees must comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 2011, with regard to:

- i. the keeping of accounting records for the Charity;
- ii. the preparation of annual statements of account for the Charity;

- iv. the transmission of the statements of account of the Charity to the Commission;
- v. the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commission.
- vi. the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Commission.

25. Registered particulars

The Trustees must notify the Commission promptly of any changes to the Charity's entry on the Central Register of Charities.

26. Bank account

Any bank or building society account in which any of the funds of the Charity are deposited must be operated by the Trustees and held in the name of the Charity. Unless the regulations of the Trustees make other provision, all cheques and orders for the payment of money from such an account shall be signed by at least two Trustees.

27. Application of Income and Property

- i. The income and property of the charity must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - a. A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed out of the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity.
 - b. A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- ii. Subject to clause 28, none of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus, or otherwise by way of profit to any charity trustee.

28. Benefits and payments to Charity Trustees and connected persons

- i. General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- a. buy or receive any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- b. sell goods, services or any interest in land to the charity;
- c. be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity;
- d. receive any other financial benefit from the charity;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause ii. of this clause or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission ('the Commission'). In this clause a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

- ii. Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits
 - a. A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
 - b. A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to, the conditions in, section 185 of the Charities Act 2011.
 - c. Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by charity trustee or connected person.
 - d. A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

- e. A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- f. A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

iii. Payment for the supply of goods only – controls

The charity and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause ii. c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- a. The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.
- b. The amount or maximum of the payment for the goods in question does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- c. The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- d. The supplier is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
- e. The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting.
- f. The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.

They must also insure suitably in respect of public liability and employer’s liability.

30. Expenses

The Trustees may use the Charity’s funds to meet any necessary and reasonable expenses which they incur in the course of carrying out their responsibilities as Trustees of the Charity.

31. Amendment of Trust Deed

- i. The Trustees may amend the provisions of this deed, provided that:
 - (a) no amendment may be made to clause 3 (Application of Income), clause 8 (Duty of care and extent of liability), clause 28 (Benefits and payments to charity Trustees and connected persons), clause 32 (Dissolution) or this clause without the prior consent in writing of the Commission; and
 - (b) no amendment may be made whose effect is that the Charity ceases to be a Charity at law.
 - (c) no amendment may be made to alter the objects if the change would undermine or work against the previous objects of the charity.
- ii. Any amendment of this deed must be made by deed following a decision of the trustees made at a special meeting.
- iii. The trustees must send to the Commission a copy of the deed effecting any amendment made under this clause within three months of it being made.

32. Dissolution

- i. The Trustees may dissolve the Charity if they decide that it is necessary or desirable to do so. To be effective, a proposal to dissolve the Charity must be passed at a special meeting by a two-thirds’ majority of the Trustees. Any assets of the Charity that are left after the Charity’s debts have been paid (‘the net assets’) must be given:
 - a. to another Charity (or other Charities) with objects that are no wider than the Charity’s own, for the general purposes of the recipient Charity (or Charities); or
 - b. to any Charity for use for particular purposes which fall within the Charity’s objects.
